THE
BIGGEST

A huge thank you to everyone who supported this morning's Macmillan Cancer Support coffee morning and cake sale. What a lot of talented cooks we have! As soon as we have had a count up of the total amount raised, including the cake sale run by Datchworth School PTA, we will let you know.

WOW! Now That's What I Call Learning!

This week's 'Wow' goes to Sanderson in Year 6, who has spent the week completing an amazing project about the Battle of the Atlantic. Amongst other activities, he has deciphered codes, explained tactics and formations, drawn U-boats and ships, and has written diary-style extracts, imagining the voice of his great grandfather. Although injury prevented him from going on the residential trip with his classmates, Sanderson has come to school every day with an enormous smile on his face, and has kept Class 5 and Mrs Morrison enthralled with his knowledge of World War Two nautical missions and his fascinating and detailed historical anecdotes. Sanderson, you should be so proud of your achievements this week - you are a star!

Class 3 visit Verulamium Museum - Thursday 11th October

Next Thursday, Class 3 will be travelling to St Albans to visit Verulamium Museum, mosaic and hypercaust, the remains of the town wall and taking part in a Roman Artefacts workshop.

Please ensure your child is dressed appropriately for the weather forecast and has plenty to drink. The coach will leave school just after nine and the expected arrival time back at school is c. 3:45pm.

Bible Focus

In Collective Worship, our half-termly Christian value is Generosity and, this week, our Bible focus was Exodus 40: 38. Next week our reading will be from Luke 12: 23-24.

Lost Property

We have already managed to accumulate quite a large number of lost property items this term. Next week, the lost property will be placed outside in the school lobby at the end of the school day from Monday 1st to Wednesday 3rd October. Please come along and have a look through.

Hopefully we can reunite some of the items with their owners. Any remaining unclaimed items will be passed to the PTA for the nearly new sale.

Good Citizen Award

Here is Austin from Year 4. He was the 'Citizen of the Week' last week and we wanted to share his amazing smile. He is a wonderful example to all.
